Welcome!

Welcome to my oboe studio! I'm passionate about helping students grow as musicians and develop a lifelong love of music. My goal is to create a supportive and positive environment where students build strong fundamentals, confidence, and artistry.

Lesson Details

Students usually have 3–4 private lessons per month, depending on the calendar. Summer lessons are available and are scheduled based on each student's goals and availability. Lessons take place in my home studio in Baltimore, Maryland.

Lesson Rates

30-minute lesson: $40

60-minute lesson: $60

Payments

Payment is due at the beginning of each lesson by check or Venmo. Checks can be handed to me before your lesson starts. Payments made more than three days late will include a small 5% late fee.

Expectations

To make the most of lessons, students should arrive on time with all assigned materials, practice regularly, and participate with curiosity and a positive attitude. Each student will perform in at least one studio recital per year.

Scheduling & Cancellations

Please give at least 24 hours' notice if you need to cancel or reschedule. Lessons canceled with less than 24 hours' notice will still be charged, except in the case of a true emergency.

Illness Policy

If a student isn't feeling well, please stay home! I'm happy to offer a virtual lesson when possible so we don't lose momentum.

Parent Involvement

Parents are welcome to sit in on the first three lessons. After that, students usually focus best one-on-one. I'm always happy to chat about progress or goals.

Reed-Making

Reed-making is an important part of playing the oboe. As students advance, we'll work on adjusting, tying, and scraping reeds.

Studio Etiquette

Our studio is a positive and supportive space. I encourage students to record lessons. However, these recordings are for personal use only.

Communication

You can reach me at noadw23@gmail.com. I will reply as soon as I am able.
